Volunteer Opportunities

The Blue Ridge Marathon is Saturday April 16th and once again Kiwanis is providing volunteers to support one of the premier races on the East Coast. Below is a sign-up link. You have to complete this online so they can get your contact information and shirt size. Yes, you get a cool T-shirt!

We met our volunteer goal for staffing an aid station, No. 6 – Top of the Mountain, as well as providing marshals, which are essentially the traffic cops for the race. However the more volunteers we provide, the more money we can make for the club! Remember to pick Kiwanis as your volunteer affiliation so we get credit.

Type in this link to volunteer:

Scroll down to any volunteer selection, select it and type in the password kiwanis when asked.

CLEAN VALLEY DAY & K MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Is President Clark hunting wabbits or trash at the Mill Mountain Star Clean-Up?

Even the AKtion Club got in on the action last weekend helping pick up trash at the Star!

Run for the Roses Membership Drive:

TWO parts to the Membership Drive:

1. # of Invitations: When you invite a non-Kiwanian to a Kiwanis Club event whether it's a Wednesday meeting, a service project, or a planning meeting for any Kiwanis sponsored event, AND they actually attend - send an email to Donna Lynch telling her who, what, where, and when.

2. # of Actual New Members: When you sponsor someone to join our Kiwanis Club, we will keep track of who has the most new membership sponsorships to win the second part of the contest.

RUN FOR THE ROSES is a GREAT time to invite people to join us and learn how much fun we have while serving our community! The winners for each part will win 2 tickets to a future Mill Mountain Theatre show courtesy of Larry Kufel.

If you have any questions, please contact Lois James, Membership Chair.
