

June Board of Directors Update

Kiwanians,

Highlights of the June 13 board meeting last week include the following:

- Two new members were approved, Milton Hardy and Greg Lionberger. These additions bring our current membership to 146, +3 for this Kiwanis year. Milton is a Community Health Worker Supervisor for the Virginia Department of Health who spoke to our club last fall. He is sponsored by Stephanie Moon Reynolds. Greg has moved back to Roanoke to join his family firm, Lionberger Construction, and becomes the third Lionberger to belong to our club currently. Greg's father, Sam Jr. is a 50-year member of Kiwanis; Greg's brother Sam III has been a Kiwanian since 2013. Sam Jr.'s father, Lewis, was Kiwanis Club of Roanoke president in 1970.
- Our Wednesday lunch meetings in July will be limited to two – July 13 and July 27. An interclub is scheduled for Wednesday, July 20, however; more interclub details will be forthcoming.
- The final net revenue from KPAD 2022 exceeded $45,000 – a record by almost 10 percent. Sponsorships, ticket sales and auction proceeds all contributed to the project's overall success. Club members leading the way were Past Presidents Rupert Cutler and J C Taylor, with sales of $3,550 and $3,000, respectively. It appears that next year we will move our pancake day back inside the Berglund Center. The date is tentatively set for May 6.
- President-Elect Ben Spiker attended the Kiwanis International Convention in Indianapolis June 8-11 and returned with a passel of ideas to consider for next year. John Montgomery attended this year's convention as well.
- We will be staffing First Fridays on July 15. In the past, this has proven to be a lucrative opportunity to garner fundraising dollars for the club.

Secretary John

It takes a village!
Many thanks to JC Taylor's bride, Lourice, who recently braved the rain to pull some weeds at our community garden.
