Notes from John

Jane Chichester

We were saddened to learn of the recent passing of Jane Chichester, wife of longtime Roanoke Kiwanian Don Chichester. Jane passed away peacefully at home last Thursday from natural causes. Their son, Steve, attended the Kiwanis Club of Roanoke meeting with Don last Wednesday. Steve lives in Erie, Pa. Don and Jane had been married for 66 years. Both Don and Jane have Long Island roots. Jane was involved in many activities in the Roanoke area in recent times, including ardent support of Habitat for Humanity. Her obituary will be published later this week. Don has belonged to the Kiwanis Club of Roanoke since 1999.

Russell Clay

Congratulations to Salvation Army Captains Russell and Jamie Clay, who are moving to Oklahoma to take over the Oklahoma City area command, an especially large assignment. Russell was a member of our Kiwanis club since early in 2020. His last Sunday in Roanoke was June 18.

No Meeting this Week as We Celebrate Independence Day

Enjoy the Holiday!

July 19th

No regular club meeting though a cookout social will be happening starting at 5:30 pm at Carvins Cove. More info to come!

From the Fun Committee

We look forward to our next outing at the Salem Red Sox game on July 27th where we'll be singing our National Anthem. Don't forget to sign up, as usual, "all the cool kids are gonna be there!"
